

The Productivity Institute, Research Conference 2021 9 June 2021, 13.00-17.00

AGENDA (vs. 07/05/21)

- 13.00-13.05: Welcome
- 13.05-13.45: Keynote
AI and the Productivity Paradox (working title)
Erik Brynjolfsson, Stanford University
- 13.45-14.45: Long-term Trends in Productivity: Past, Current and Future
Long-term productivity trends – UK in an international perspective
John Fernald, INSEAD; Robert Inklaar, University of Groningen
Financial Crisis and Pandemic: The productivity implications for the UK
Jagjit Chadha, Hande Kucuk and Adrian Pabst, NIESR
Discussant: tbc
- 14.45-15.00: Break
- 15.00-16.00 Pandemic and Productivity
Comparative analysis of green recovery packages in the UK, Germany and France and implications for productivity
Frank Geels, Guillermo Ivan Pereira and Jonatan Pinkse, University of Manchester
The productivity impacts of government support measures during Covid-19: A firm level analysis
Stephen Roper and Halima Jibril, University of Warwick; Mark Hart, Aston University
Discussant: Diane Coyle, Cambridge
- 16.00-17.00 Regional Dimensions of Productivity
Regional inequalities and productivity: EU-UK-US comparisons
Enrique Garcilazo, Ana I. Moreno-Monroy and Joaquim Oliveira Martins, OECD
A new framework for understanding regional productivity disparities
Tony Venables, University of Manchester
Discussant: Ana Rincon-Aznar, NIESR